

Maxi Construction Limited

Education

Maths School | Cargilfield School | Edinburgh

This project was for the construction of a new classroom block within an existing school facility.

The building is of timber frame construction and features timber cladding and a concrete-tiled roof.

The completed facility provides 3 classrooms to form the school's Maths School.

Client | Cargilfield School
Architect | Johnston & Co
Q.S. | Abacus Quantity Surveyors
Structural Engineer | Harley Haddow
Value | £0.4m
Contract Period | 20 weeks
Contract | SBC with CD Portions and Quantities (Jan 2004 Rev.)